Dean's Write On! Award Submission Form

Directions for each submission:

1. The student completes a writing assignment (the writing may be technical, creative, or academic as long as it is assigned for a class).
2. The instructor nominates the student to submit the writing for the Dean's Write On! Award.
3. The instructor fills out the top of this form.
4. The student signs the statement at the bottom of this form. He or she then submits the class writing, this submission form, and the assignment sheet (distributed by the instructor) to Jasna Shannon through campus mail or electronically by deadline (Reading Day of Spring semester).

There is no limit to the number of papers an instructor may nominate, nor is there a limit for the number of submissions by a student. The only requirement is that each submission is a class assignment (not a special project created just for the Dean's Write On! Award) composed during the terms or semesters when the contest is held. To be eligible for this year's competition, a submission must be composed during either fall or spring semester, Term I, II, III, IV or V.

Winners in each class category (freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior) will receive a $300 prize and will also receive special recognition by having their papers published in the Dean's Write On! Award journal. In addition to the winners, students whose papers are judged to be superior will have their names listed in the journal.
